

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
June 25, 2008

NEW POSITIONS FOR AMY JUNGER AND TED NADEAU AT CONDÉNET

Amy Junger was named to the new position of SVP Finance & Planning of CondéNet and Ted Nadeau is promoted to SVP & General Manager, it was announced today by Sarah Chubb, President of CondéNet. Their appointments are effective immediately. They will report to Debi Chirichella, who assumes her new position as COO of CondéNet August 1st.

Ms. Junger has been the SVP Financial Operations of CondéNet since 2001. She joined CondéNet in 2000 as General Manager. Previously, she was the Business Manager at Gourmet and the Corporate Business Director for Condé Nast.

Mr. Nadeau has been the VP & General Manager of CondéNet since May 2007. Before joining CondéNet he was the VP, Product Development for the internet company, Vindigo. Prior, he was the GM of ACMEcity.com.

“Amy and Ted have been critical to the success of our dramatic growth plan over the last two years,” Ms.Chubb, said. “These promotions reflect the expansion of their respective roles within CondéNet now that we have grown the company significantly.”

Condé Nast Publications, a unit of Advance Publications, includes twenty-six consumer magazines and their websites, CondéNet, the Fairchild Fashion Group, Parade, the Condé Nast Media Group, and the Shared Services Centers.

PRESS CONTACT:

Maurie Perl, Senior Vice President, Corporate Communications (212) 286-5893
maurie_perl@condenast.com